c. The agenda, papers that support the agenda and the minutes of a meeting shall not disclose or otherwise undermine confidential information or personal data without legal justification.

d. Councillors, staff, the Council's contractors and agents shall not disclose confidential information or personal data without legal justification.

e. The Council has the following means of dealing with confidential matters:-

Confidential Matters

Under the Public Bodies (Admission to Meetings) Act 1960, Council meetings must be open to the public (which includes the press) except when any confidential matter is to be discussed in which their presence is considered to be prejudicial to the public interest, for example a contractual matter or a legal case. However, the Council has a power to resolve to exclude the press and public for the whole or part of the meeting on the grounds that publicity would be prejudicial to the public interest, either because of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for some other stated reason. Such a resolution does not have to be included in the agenda, but it is good practice to include it.

The attached agenda and minutes do not include a confidential matter, but in accordance with the Council's Standing Orders when faced with a confidential matter, the Chair would close the meeting and ask members of the public. The public's exclusion from part or all of the meeting is by a resolution setting out the reasons the public has been excluded.

The clerk would note the following in the minutes. Pursuant to s 1 (2) of the Public Bodies (Admission to Meetings) Act 1960, it is resolved that, because of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted, the public and the press leave the meeting during consideration of the matter. This would be followed by the reasons.

The minutes of such items are part of the main body of the minutes and the minute should be kept to a minimum i.e. simply recording a decision rather than the background.

It is not lawful to exclude some of the public or the press. The exclusion must apply uniformly. However, the Council may invite individuals to speak at a meeting (e.g. the Council's solicitor, or other professional adviser or particular staff member) when it is in private session.
